Senator Bolz Statement on the Department of Correctional Services Committee on Industrial Relations Hearing Outcome

March 1, 2019 (Lincoln, NE) — In response to today's CIR hearing, Senator Kate Bolz released the following statement:

“We are disappointed that there was no increase in corrections staff wages following this week's Committee on Industrial Relations hearing. We stand with the Department of Corrections staffers and continue to work diligently to pass LB109, which would recognize skill and experience of employees through a longevity pay plan.”

Senator Kate Bolz of Lincoln Represents District #29 in the Nebraska Legislature
