

MEDIAN HOUSEHOLD INCOME BY LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT

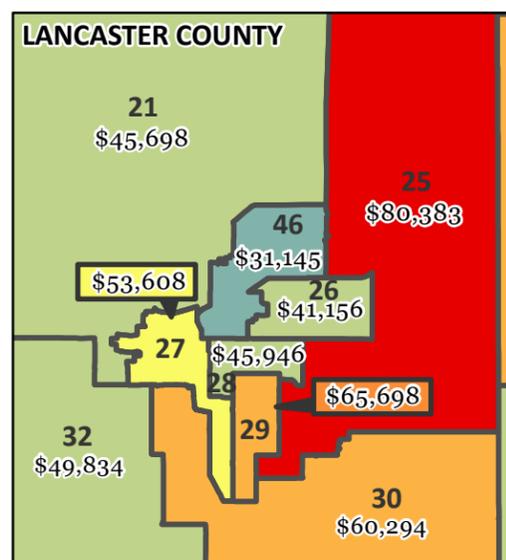

Median Household Income is collected by the American Community Survey. The median household income in Nebraska is $52,000. Median household income is the midpoint income in a Legislative District; half of the households made more and half of the households made less. The data is available in census block groups, which were used to estimate the median household income for census blocks and then merged into the individual Legislative Districts.

Legend

- Legislative District Boundary

Median Income Color Scale

- $20,000 - $30,000
- $30,001 - $40,000
- $40,001 - $50,000
- $50,001 - $60,000
- $60,001 - $80,000
- $80,001 - $100,000
- $100,001 - $110,000

1:2,000,000

Map Created by Casey Dunn
Sources: U.S. Census Bureau (2013), ESRI
7 April 2015

